A triumph of unique contemporary interior in Val d'Isere

14 Guests • 7 Bedrooms • 700 m² / 7534 ft

This chalet in Val d'Isere is a triumph of unique contemporary interior design coupled with traditional chalet elements which result a mind blowing property which you simply won't want to leave. The vast open plan living space spans the entire length of the chalet, from the dining area complete with bar area at one end, over the glass walkway suspended above the indoor atrium garden, to the lounge area, flanked with vast brown leather sofas in front of the large open fireplace.

Chalet full of quirky and interesting artefacts and objects d'art

Quirky and interesting artefacts and objects d'art are peppered throughout the chalet, both old and new and each unique in style. The lighting in the chalet adds an extra dimension, from the colored up lighting in the atrium to the full spectrum of rainbow colors above the pool.

Swimming pool with waterfall, sauna, hammam, automatic massage tables and gym

The action can continue off the slopes thanks to the incredible array of facilities that this property has on offer. From the swimming pool with infinity waterfall to the sauna, hammam and automatic massage tables, there's no excuse for aching muscles, not to mention the fitness room for those needing that extra bit of a workout.

All bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms, master bedroom has private access to wellness

The seven bedrooms have been cleverly designed to ensure that everyone benefits from natural light. Each has an en-suite bathroom, two with baths and every bedroom has a TV. Six of the seven bedrooms are on the ground floor and the master has its own access into the wellness area. The chalet has parking for up to three cars in two garages and the ski room is located in the garage area.

Service team including private chef is on hand

The service teams pride themselves on their ability to ensure that every aspect of the service is seamless and to anticipate your every need. Your private chef will serve mouth-watering dishes from a menu tailored to your tastes. Your hosts will manage every aspect of your holiday, from restaurant bookings to ensuring a smart 4x4 vehicle is ready to take you skiing and keeping your glass topped up with a carefully chosen wine or perfectly mixed gin & tonic.
